NOTICE – Kazakhstan Urgent

SUBJECT – Post Adoption Reports

Notice – Kazakhstan (8 September 2014)

Members of the AAI's Senior Management Team met with Mr. Yerlan Utegenov, Attaché on Consular Affairs of the Embassy of Kazakhstan in London, on 4 September 2014.

Mr. Utegenov asked the Authority to request adoptive parents who have adopted children from Kazakhstan to contact him urgently with regard to the production of post-adoption reports. According to Mr. Utegenov, post-adoption reports should be sent to the Kazakhstani Embassy until the adopted child is 18 years of age.

Mr. Utegenov also stated that, of the 149 children whose names are in the AAI's Register of Intercountry Adoptions, only 76 have had their Kazakhstani passports renewed. He asked that those adoptive parents, whose children have not had their passports renewed, to contact him.

Contact details are as follows –
