The Adoption Authority of Ireland are pleased to present the Authority's Strategic Plan for 2022-2024. The Strategy aims to assist the Authority in providing and overseeing the highest possible standards of adoption services, with the best interest of children as the first and paramount priority.

Building on a strong performance against the priorities and goals outlined in the previous Strategic Plan for 2019-2021, the Authority now looks to develop further as a robust, innovative organisation, in the face of an evolving legislative landscape.

In addition to a commitment to maintain, and further develop our current services and operations, this strategy outlines the preparations required for the implementation of the Birth Information and Tracing Bill. Extensive planning has already been undertaken in order to understand the future operational requirements for this implementation. We will look to progress this further, as well as support our partnering organisations in overcoming any challenges expected through its implementation. The Authority sees the enactment of the Bill as a significant opportunity, giving the organisation enhanced roles and responsibilities in delivering meaningful services.

The 2022-2024 strategic priorities demonstrate our commitment to being recognised as the centre of excellence and principal authoritative source of information on all aspects of adoption and as a provider and regulator of high quality adoption services in Ireland. The Authority will look to further enhance communication to the public, and those involved in the adoption processes to encourage an improved awareness and understanding around adoption. We will look to effectively support and adequately staff our recently established research unit, to produce and promote adoption research findings to influence informed debate on adoption issues.

A key focus for the Authority in this period will be supporting our people. The COVID-19 pandemic has changed our lives, and influenced the way we think about our work. We are also anticipating an increase in workload, which will mean the organisation is likely to grow. In order to ensure that our staff feel fully supported, we will introduce initiatives around training and development and career progression, and look to continue developing a culture where staff are empowered to influence their ways of working, feel supported in their career ambition, and ensure they truly feel that they are contributing towards the success of the Authority.

Throughout the development of this strategic plan, we have reflected on past progress and challenges, with invaluable input from our stakeholder groups, including: the Authority's Senior Management Team and Board; Authority staff; TUSLA and the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth and a number of other key stakeholders within the adoption landscape. We would personally like to thank those who partook in the consultations for giving up their time and knowledge which has influenced the future strategic direction of the Authority.

We continue to value and acknowledge the support of the Minister for Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth and that of his Department in progressing the adoption landscape and provision of adoption services in Ireland.

Introduction

The Authority is required, under Section 108 of the Adoption Act, to prepare and submit a Corporate Plan (Strategic Plan). Section 108(3) and (4) of the Act states that:

- (3) the Corporate Plan shall be prepared in a form and manner in accordance with any direction given by the Minister and shall specify:
  - (a) the key objective of the Authority for the three year period concerned and the strategies for achieving these objectives, and (b) the uses to which the Authority proposed to apply its resources; and
- (4) in preparing of the Corporate Plan, the Authority shall have regard to the policies of the Government or a Minister of the Government to the extent that those policies may affect or relate to the functions of the Authority.

In line with the Code of Practice for the Governance of State Bodies 2016, the Authority has prepared a three year Corporate Plan (Strategic Plan) and will operationalise this through Annual Business Plans. These plans will be reported and reviewed upon, in the form of the Authority's Annual Report and by updates to the Department's Adoption Policy Unit (APU).

Strategic Review

The AAI's previous Corporate Plan 2019-2021 was reviewed in relation to work progressed, and to gain an understanding of the suitability of the Authority's mission, vision, values, and appraise which goals and objectives should be carried forward and continue through the next strategic period.

The Authority undertook a comprehensive analysis of both internal and external reports and publications and conducted a series of stakeholder engagements. The focus of these engagements was to perform an analysis of the Adoption Authority of Ireland's performance against the previous Corporate Plan (2019-2021) and to identify strategic priorities, goals and implementation considerations for the next 3 years.

Stakeholder Engagement

The stakeholder consultation series consisted of over twenty five one-to-one consultations and themed workshops with identified key internal and external stakeholders, including:

- Members of the AAI Board, Senior Management Team and staff members;
- Representatives from the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth, TUSLA, the Ombudsman for Children, international adoption groups;
- Representatives from legal support services used by the Authority; and
- Representatives from accredited adoption agencies.

Strategic Direction

The findings from the strategic review and the stakeholder consultations were outlined in a SWOT and PESTEL analysis, and informed a number of strategic priorities which were appraised to form strategic goals.

Once strategic goals were agreed, feasible objectives and low level actions were developed in order to clearly identify a roadmap to deliver each goal.

This document provides the strategic framework for the implementation plan (separate operational document) which sets out to operationalise the strategic priorities and goals. Annual Business Plans should take direction from these documents when outlining organisational, unit and individual targets and performance plans for the upcoming year.

Adoption Authority of Ireland (AAI): Formation and Purpose

The Adoption Authority of Ireland (AAI) is an independent quasi-judicial body under the aegis of the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth, and was established on 1st November 2010 under the Adoption Act 2010. The Authority is also, in line with The Hague Convention on the Protection of Children and Co-operation in Respect of Intercountry Adoption, the central authority for intercountry adoption in Ireland. The purpose of the Adoption Act 2010 is to improve standards in both domestic and intercountry adoption.

Legal adoption was first introduced in Ireland under the 1952 Adoption Act. The 1952 Act was enacted on 1 January 1953 and the Adoption Board was established under this Act. The Adoption Board had the sole right to grant or refuse to grant Adoption Orders. This right is now vested in the Adoption Authority of Ireland under the current 2010 legislation.

The functions of the Authority are set out in Section 96 of the Adoption Act 2010. These include functions of an operational, judicial and quasi-judicial nature in relation to the adoption process itself, as provided for under the Act, but also relating to the Authority's designation as the Central Authority for the 1993 Hague Convention on the Protection of Children and Co-operation in Respect of intercountry Adoption. In addition, the Authority has registration, regulatory and research functions.

Areas of Work

The Authority's obligations span the following areas:

Domestic Adoption: where a child who is resident in Ireland is adopted by a person or couple who is/are also resident in Ireland.

Intercountry Adoption: where persons resident in Ireland decide to adopt a child who is resident in a country other than Ireland.

Information and Tracing: to support post-adoption information and tracing.

Social Work: review and monitoring of social work practice across adoption processes, as well as information, advice and support about any issue relating to adoption and providing mediation and counselling.

Accreditation: to assess and appropriately accredit adoption-related bodies and activities to comply with Irish adoption law.

Adoption Authority of Ireland's Customer Charter

The Adoption Authority of Ireland is committed to providing a professional, efficient and courteous service to all customers, in accordance with the twelve principles of quality customer service for government departments and public bodies.

Public Sector Equality and Human Rights Duty

All public bodies in Ireland have a statutory duty to eliminate discrimination, promote equality and protect the human rights of their staff, service users and everyone affected by their policies and plans. This is an obligation originated in Section 42 of the Irish Human Rights and Equality Act 2014.

Having regard to the current, and anticipated future size, functions and staff levels of the organisation, the Authority commits to reviewing its activities against the Human Rights and Equality Act 2014, (found in strategy Goal 5.1/action 5.1.1.6) and maintaining a register of any issues, and mitigating steps to address these issues. This register will be available to the public on request, and will be referenced in the Authority's Annual Report.

Birth Information and Tracing legislation

The proposed Birth Information and Tracing Bill, which will be enacted during the terms of this strategic plan, will have a significant impact on the strategic direction and priorities of the Adoption Authority of Ireland.

The purpose of the Bill is to enshrine into law the importance of an individual knowing their origins. The Bill proposes a right of access by adopted people and others (such as those who are the subject of illegal birth registration) to birth certificates, birth, early life and medical information and will provide assistance to people who have questions in relation to their origins and identity. The draft Bill also proposes the establishment of a comprehensive Tracing Service to be conducted by the Authority and Tusla and a Contact Preference Register to support people wishing to make contact with birth relatives or to share information.

The bill will have a significant impact on the capacity of existing staff and their workload, it will require the recruitment of additional staff to support the operationalising of this Bill and finally will require an expansion of existing facilities to cater for the storage of all adoption records that come under its stewardship.

In addition, the ability for the authority to continue to complete all adoption orders in a timely and efficient manner will need to be extensively considered as part of the staffing needs for operationalising this new Bill.

Governance and Organisational Structure

AAI Board

The AAI Board has seven members, appointed by the Minister for Children, Equality, Disability, Integration, and Youth, and is chaired by Ms. Orlaith Traynor. All seven board positions are incumbent until 31/10/2025.

It is recognised that a vital ingredient to the success of this strategic planning process and the plan's responsiveness and authenticity will be the central involvement of the current Board, where the new Chairperson and new Board members also have ownership of the process. The possibility of either the extension of the current board tenure or staggered board terms for each individual board member should be explored for future boards of the AAI. Each of the board members including their background is outlined below:

Progress of Corporate Plan 2019 - 2021

Progress of Corporate Plan 2019 - 2021

---

The AAI's Strategic Plan for 2022-2024 was informed by the Authority's performance over the period of the previous Corporate Plan 2019-2021. The summary of the progress made against the seven goals that formed that Corporate Plan, are detailed below. A high level commentary on current work/status has also been provided, in order to build a view of areas for further development and those required to successfully implement the new three year strategic plan.

 Goal 1
To ensure that the best interests of the children and young people are paramount and that the Authority remains committed to hearing from children and young people and responding to them in a meaningful manner throughout the adoption process.

 Progress
The authority is committed to hearing from children and young people and they are kept at the forefront of the AAI's dealings. In all board meetings with children and young people the authority ensured they were adequately heard.

 Working towards 2024

- The changing of legislation will dramatically increase the demand for the AAI's services; and
- It will be business critical to have adequate staffing capacity availability to respond to the increasing demands on services and maintain the same level of quality.

 Goal 2
To ensure all relevant parties to the adoption process are heard and their respective rights are balanced appropriately.

 Progress
The Board continues to be proactive and receptive to engage with any individual, even if not bound by legislation to do so.

 Working towards 2024

- One of the main constraints will be capacity; and
- As the demands for the service increase, it will be paramount that there is enough staff to engage with, and listen to all parties concerned with the adoption process and still meet order deadlines.

 Goal 3
To achieve the highest standard in the regulation and operation of adoption services in Ireland.

 Progress
The highest standards are constantly strived for. Over the past 3 years, the regulatory function requirements have reduced. All statutory reports were filed on time.

 Working towards 2024

- No legislative basis for AAI to regulate the largest provider of adoption services; and
- Addressing this would bring conformity to adoption standards and services.

 Goal 4
To apply informed and balanced decision-making in adoption services, in accordance with national and international law and evidence-based best practice.

 Progress
All applications were reviewed in a timely fashion by the Executive and referred to the Board for a decision. All adoption decisions were made within the target timelines.

 Working towards 2024

- As the basis of much of the AAI's work is founded in statute and law, the expansion of the research strategy to include legal research could be extremely beneficial.

Progress of Corporate Plan 2019 - 2021

Goal 5

To inform adoption policy and service delivery by reason of a practical understanding of the operations of the legislation through the provision of a comprehensive information, research and communications framework.

Progress

AAI continued to support government in the development of adoption policy, including offering information around operationalising the Birth Information and Tracing Bill.

Working towards 2024

- The AAI would like to review and add commentary to the early stages of the policy development process to ensure input is considered around the feasibility of operationalising new government policy and legislation.

Goal 6

To plan and implement the changes required in organisation policies and operational procedures in line with emerging legislative changes.

Progress

Initial plans are in place to operationalise upcoming changes to legislation. A full understanding of these requirements will become apparent when the Bill is finalised.

Working towards 2024

- Having adequate staffing and capacity levels to deal with legislative changes, such as the upcoming Birth Information and Tracing Bill, is of critical importance; and
- Reviewing and updating plans, policies and procedures will be on an ongoing basis as operational requirements become apparent.

Goal 7

To be proactive and responsive to change and maintain an efficient, competent, accountable and learning organisation.

Progress

Adapting to the AAI's transition online during the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic was challenging, the paper based nature did not aid their transition. However, the months which followed saw the organisation adapt successfully and the AAI are now in a better position to respond to change.

Working towards 2024

- Continuing to implement innovative IT solutions will be hugely beneficial to the efficacy of the AAI;
- Develop and implement training initiatives; and
- Continue to comply with the 2016 Code of Practice for the Governance of State Bodies, risk management policy and other compliance requirements.

Strategic Plan 2022 – 2024

Strategic Plan 2022 – 2024

The strategic plan that has been developed for 2022-2024 has been designed to ensure that the Authority's vision and mission for the next three years can be realised. This plan has been developed with the support, review and feedback of the AAI Board, Senior Management Team and all managers. Managers in turn consulted with their staff to ensure feedback was gathered from all staff in the organisation. As a result, the plan developed takes into account staff level concerns and develops buy-in to ensure the plan can be delivered over the timeframe.

Six key priorities with associated goals, objectives, and underlying actions have been developed in order to frame the delivery of this strategy. These priorities are a representation of the full range of services that the Authority provides, and all those who have contributed to its development are fully committed to ensuring the Authority meet these strategic goals within the three year timeframe. The six key priorities driving the strategic plan for the Adoption Authority for 2022 – 2024 are outlined below:

The strategic plan for 2022 – 2024 is outlined in the following sections. The format for the presentation of the strategic plan is firstly by each priority, then by the goals, the objectives to deliver each goal and finally the low-level actions that are required to fully deliver this strategy.

Appendix C: Declaration on Public Service Innovation in Ireland

Declaration on Public Service Innovation in Ireland

In order to better serve our people, the Irish Public Service needs to be highly innovative. Innovation does more than simply drive economic growth. It has the potential to solve some of the most pressing challenges that Ireland faces now and in the Future.

ADOPTION AUTHORITY OF IRELAND declares to take the following actions to build a culture of innovation in our Public Service. We will:

Further endorse innovation as the responsibility of every public servant;

Enable, support, inform and equip our public servants to innovate in their roles;

Cultivate new partnerships and involve diverse views in problem solving and designing and delivering our public services;

Generate multiple options for existing and potential problems through exploration, experimentation, iteration and testing;

Provide insights into our experiences, best practices and lessons learned with other public servants in Ireland and abroad;

Share knowledge and data with citizens in an open and transparent way.

Innovation, experimentation and openness require constant effort and a certain degree of risk. As public servants, we must be ambitious, agile and collaborative to achieve meaningful and durable results. In doing so we should be open to progressive thinking in order to create a new and better future for all inhabitants of the State.

To solve difficult problems, we must rely on the diversity, ingenuity and creativity of the public and our fellow public servants. We must also be open to blue sky thinking in order to create a new and better future for our people. In times of considerable change and uncertainty, our greatest risk is refusing to take chances and try new things. We need a culture of innovation.

Innovation is now the benchmark in most scientific, business and social sectors. Embracing and enabling innovation is equally important in delivering services and building inclusive, sustainable communities.

CEO Patricia Carey
ADOPTION AUTHORITY OF IRELAND
