

About the Directory

The purpose of this directory is to assist those seeking post-adoption services in Ireland. The directory contains contact details for individuals, organisations and agencies which have indicated to the Adoption Authority of Ireland (the "Authority") that they provide such services in Ireland. It also contains other organisations which provide adoption services and/or which are accredited by the Authority under section 126 of the Adoption Act 2010. Please note that certain organisations, such as support groups do not require accreditation under section 126 of the Adoption Act 2010 to operate. The service providers listed in the directory have indicated their interest in being included in the directory.

Disclaimer

No responsibility can be accepted by the Authority for any loss occasioned to any person acting or refraining from action as a result of the material in this publication. The Authority does not take responsibility for competence and/or probity of any entrant in the directory or for the consequences of the advice given. Users should refer to the relevant professional regulatory body for the most up to date registration information in respect of health or other professionals referred to in the directory.

The Authority does not sponsor, endorse or fund private arrangements in the provision of post-adoption services. Some services listed here are private services that require payment, please contact the service provider directly to check the costs. Please note that the Adoption Authority of Ireland does not sponsor or endorse the individuals or organisations named and will not be responsible for payments or outcomes.

To provide an update for the Directory, please contact the Adoption Authority of Ireland at 01 230 9306 SW@aai.gov.ie For feedback suggestions and complaints about the directory, please contact Katie Harrigan, Senior Social Work Practitioner directly at 01 2309 318 Katie_harrigan@aai.gov.ie
